Guide for Citing Resources: Chicago Manual of Style (Notes-Bibliography System)

This guide is based on The Chicago Manual of Style 15th ed. (University of Chicago Press, 2003). Examples are shown for the Notes-Bibliography system recommended for literature, history, and the arts.

Bibliography items are listed alphabetically at the end of the research paper. In the body of the paper, references are identified with either footnotes or endnotes.

Numbers in brackets [] refer to the section of the Chicago Manual of Style which describes the specific citation style. Consult these pages for more information.

For additional examples, please consult The Chicago Manual of Style available in the Reference collections of many of the OSU libraries. (Z253 .U69 2003)
